Washington (DC) Post, August 8, 1953

Half MIG Pilots Russian

Arms Flow to China Goes On After Truce

HONGKONG, Aug. 7 (NYHT.). Soviet supply build up to China

ligence sources.

one juncture close to 50 percent there now are about 250 MIGs, of the Communist air force. of the Communist air force.

Radio intercepts of pilot-to-ground conversations in the Yaluy River battle area estab-lished that Soviet personnel were actively engaged consid-Russian dialects vary consid-cently received a force of stra-ter battle area estab-lindo-China. A base south of Peking re-ter battle area estab-in the southwest, near French A base south of Peking re-ter battle area estab-lindo-China.

pilots hailed from.

drivers, artillery officers and in ported. anti-aircraft battalions. Ordinary ground troops also in- taking an increasing number of cluded persons born and edu- Chinese candidates into their ous nationalities, including for-been turned over to Red China. Cibly retained German, Yugo-It is known that Chinese are being trained as submariners taken in World War II.

the Russians can send to any ports, including Tsingtao, are place where it suits them to capable now of handling subma-pretend that a conflict is a civil rine traffic. war. The German troops, for example, would come in handy if the Russians should decide East alone seven times as many var between East and West Adolph Hitler's Germany when Germany.

There has been no drop since undersea attacks in World the truce in the tempo of the War II.

The Soviet Union will continue by rail or by sea The Red Chinese air force a steady flow of military and technical assistance to Commu-nist China in spite of the Ko-rean truce, according to infor-mation reaching Western intelin the base complex south of It can now be disclosed that Shanghai, as at Ninpo and Hang-Soviet citizens, including non-kow, have been reinforced. Be-Oriental pilots, constituted at ween Shanghai and Canton

The Chinese have activated, erably, so that a catalogue was tegic bombers-the Soviet vermade indicating what parts of sion of the American B-29 Supthe Soviet Union various MIG erfortresses. The presence in central China of Soviet-styled Russians also served as tank jet bombers also has been re-

The Russians also have been cated in Soviet territory. Actually, the Soviet Union keeps trained on Soviet soil a kind of foreign legion of vari-dozen Soviet submarines have They are shock troops which and that a number of Chinese

the Nazis were launching deadly