

22 April 1955

Mr. F. Ronald Mansbridge
Manager
Cambridge University Press
32 East 57th Street
New York 22, New York

Dear Mr. Mansbridge:

It occurs to me that for one reason or another you might desire to have the original copy of our manuscript, in addition to the carbon copy already in your possession. If so, please advise and I will forward it at once.

In returning the manuscript, Dr. Wright of the Folger Shakespeare Library also turned over to us a copy of the letter concerning it from Professor Gerald Kades Bentley of Princeton University for our information. Dr. Wright also indicated verbally that there would be no objections to our sending a copy to Cambridge University Press, and a typescript is therefore enclosed.

I am also enclosing a substitute title page with the title agreed upon for the press release from the Library.

It pleases me to be able to report that Mr. Friedman has in the past few days shown marked progress, and indications are that he will be able to leave the hospital by May 1, followed by at least a month's rest at home.

Sincerely,

ELIZABETH SMITH FRIEDMAN
