Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Friedman:

Again we are highly indebted to you for a wonderful presentation. It is difficult for me to express our gratitude for your willingness to visit with us, your patience in enduring the difficulties of travel back and forth and the enthusiasm with which you continually approach the task of indoctrinating class after class in the "business". We do want you to know that we realize that it is no easy task for you to tear yourself away from Washington. Because of this please accept our warmest, heartfelt thanks.

I hope your journey home was pleasant. All of us will be looking forward to your visit next Spring. Remember Dena and me to Elizabeth.

Kindest personal regards,

L. C. SHEETZ
