1. U.S. sent 350 M-209's to French Indo-China forces just before the war there ended. Hence, it is very doubtful that these machines were even taken out of the 88 boxes in which they were shipped. 2. Do you think we ought to recommend getting them back?

SUBJECT:

It appears that the M-209 mystery has finally been cleared up. After checking and rechecking all over the country, someone finally read the receipt. As you will see, it covers all items on the manifest, a total of 2,576 boxes. Item no 2586 consists of 88 boxes of M-209s (350). I apologize for having allowed the matter to take so long
