P. S.

Dear Howard:

The inclosed is of course just a form letter and since you have already told me you will be available for the 4-5 February meeting, you will not have to send me any written notice of your expectation to attend. Also, of course, there will be no need to issue travel orders for you. With regard to the consultants fee, you will be able to put in a voucher to cover that upon completion of the temporary duty.

I hope that you will find it convenient to attend the first session, which will be a briefing for new members on the 4th, but your attendance will not be necessary and you might wish rather to consult with some of the people who can bring you up to date on the problem to which SCAG devoted so much of its time.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. FRIEDMAN
Consultant
